The story of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians
is a story of spirit, strength,
and perseverance.

Who We Are

Poarch Creek Indians
FEDERAL SERVICES

The Poarch Creek Indians are descendants of a segment of the original Creek Nation, which once covered almost all of Alabama and Georgia. Unlike many eastern Indian tribes, the Poarch Creeks were not removed from their tribal lands and have lived together for almost 200 years in and around the reservation in Poarch, Alabama.

Who We Are

Poarch Creek Indians
FEDERAL SERVICES

With the growth and development of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians, the relationship between Alabama and its only federally recognized Tribe has deepened into a mutually beneficial partnership. And as the Tribe's economic impact on the state has increased, its influence has grown—from the halls of the legislature to charitable foundations to leading organizations throughout the state.

Alabama Natives. Alabama Neighbors.
